

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

Jessie L. Sims,

Plaintiff

v.

David Stanton, et al.,

Defendants

Case No. 2:19-cv-00833-JAD-DJA

Order Adopting Report and Recommendation and Dismissing Case

[ECF No. 11]

Plaintiff Jessie L. Sims filed this civil-rights action to redress violations that he claims he suffered related to a state-court matter. The magistrate judge dismissed Sims's original complaint with instructions about its deficiencies and leave to amend.<sup>1</sup> Sims filed an amended complaint,<sup>2</sup> but because it still fails to state a plausible claim for relief, the magistrate judge recommends that I dismiss this action with prejudice.<sup>3</sup> The deadline for objections to that recommendation passed without objection or any request to extend the deadline to file one. "[N]o review is required of a magistrate judge's report and recommendation unless objections are filed."<sup>4</sup> For the reasons stated in the report and recommendation, and because Sims's failure to state a claim for relief despite the opportunity to amend with instructions indicates that he cannot plead a plausible claim for relief,
